24th January 1888.

No. 185.—Under the provisions of Section 55, Clause (g) of the Excise Act (XXII of 1881), His Highness the Maharaja's Government hereby sanction the introduction of the following rules for the exercise of proper check over consignments of liquor sent from the Government Distillery to wholesale depôts and the disposal of the rahadaris which accompany them:—

1. Every consignment of liquor will be covered by a rahadari in duplicate, the original being left with the cart-man, the duplicate being sent on to the Amildar of the Taluk, where the wholesale depôt is situated, and the counterfoil being retained in the Distillery Office.

2. The cart with liquor and the rahadari must first be taken to the Amildar if the depôt is situated at Taluk, Head-quarters, or to such other official as the Amildar may delegate if the depôt is in any outlying town in his Taluk.

3. The contents of the rahadari should be compared with the duplicate copy received by the Amildar, as well as with the details painted on the casks, and the seals on the casks examined.

4. The date and hour should then be recorded on the back of the rahadari under the signature and designation of the official appointed by the Amildar for this purpose, and the consignment then passed on to the depôt to be there bonded.

5. The rahadari should at once be sent back by the depôt wholesale vendor to the Government official appointed by the Amildar, who should see that the wholesale vendor has noted underneath the Taluk official's endorsement, "Contents received and bonded," with the date and hour of receipt at the depôt.

6. All the rahadaris thus collected during the month should, on the 1st of the following month, be brought with a "Patti," giving name of depôt, No., date and contents of pass (Ga.—Drs) to the Amildar, who will, after satisfying himself that the instructions given above have been fully complied with, score the rahadari across thus X, in red ink from end to end, write the word "Cancelled" across the face of each pass under his seal and signature, and send the patti and the cancelled rahadaries to the Deputy Commissioner of the District.

7. On receipt of these at the District Office, the contents given on the "patti" should be compared with the abstract account of issues of liquor from the Distillery sent by the Special Assistant Commissioner, Alkari and Excise, monthly to each Deputy Commissioner, and the "patti" and the file of cancelled rahadaries then sent on to the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District.

8. As the rahadaries are received at the Bangalore District Office, they will be compared with the detailed accounts rendered for the whole Province by the Special Assistant Commissioner, and retained as vouchers till six months after each contract has been closed, when they may be destroyed.

9. When consignments are received without a rahadari, the liquor should be attached, and the matter at once brought to the notice of the Amildar. If he is satisfied that no fraud exists, he may release the liquor on the security of the wholesale vendor, intimating particulars to the Special Assistant Commissioner, Alkari and Excise, at Bangalore, who will send a duplicate of the rahadari.

10. If the contents (Ga. and Drs, No. and place) as given in the rahadari do not substantially tally with those noted on the cask the liquor will be sent on to the depôt with the same precautions which are required to be taken under Rule 9, to be there examined either by the Amildar himself or by any other officer appointed by him; and a report of such examination should be forwarded by the Amildar to the Special Assistant Commissioner.

11. The Deputy Commissioners will give such of the Police officers and Revenue officials drawing Rs. 10 and above as are invested with the powers of Excise officers, under Dewan's Notification No. 63, dated 8th July 1884, to understand that it is their duty to see that liquors or drugs, when taken, are covered by a Government rahadari, and that if they are not so covered, they should hand the parties in possession of such liquors or drugs, over to the nearest Police station for disposal according to law.

The 20th January 1888.

It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jod villages, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized writis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each writi separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of the revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
